

*Whatever we give away with love never ceases to be ours.
And the one we gave away does whatever good
Never ceases to fill our hearts with joy.*

As parents we feed, housed, clothed, educate and raise our children to give them away in marriage or to society as they go to work to establish their own lives. We hope all we gave them was enough to make them contributing members of society. If they excel at what they do and are recognized and honored by all, our hearts are filled with overwhelming joy.

When a soul has been cleansed of loyalty to SELF and has been made to be the dwelling place of the triune God. As a steward that soul rejoices with THE FATHER when He sends His Son (i.e. the wisdom and knowledge of God) to create, restore, washed, refresh, strengthen & embolden souls with newness of life in order to reveal to creation all the gentleness, kindness, usefulness and ingenuity found in the Creator. When people give praise and glory to THE WORD for all it does THE FATHER is filled with overwhelming Joy and in The Holy Ghost we get to sense that Joy and we let that joy be our strength and motivation for living every second of the day. John the Baptist had that joy when he saw Jesus had more fame and followers than he did.

Romans 14:17 “For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink;
but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.”
